The old world charm of the Cinque Ports

Wednesday 29 April 2026 for 3 days

Coach supplied by Bessway Travel Ltd of North Wembley

One of the prestigious appointments held by the late Queen Mother was that of Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and her official residence was Walmer Castle overlooking the sea at Deal in Kent. This ancient Tudor fortress has been transformed through the centuries into an elegant stately home and every year the Queen Mother enjoyed staying here. Some of the rooms she used are now open to visitors at this English Heritage property. The gardens here are very fine as are the celebrated gardens at Great Dixter near Northiam which we shall also visit. This short break has other delights not least the medieval hilltop town of Rye, Royal Tunbridge Wells, Sandwich and Smallhythe Place once the home of the acclaimed actress Dame Ellen Terry, the great aunt of Sir John Gielgud. We shall be staying for 2 nights near Rye at the Flackley Ash Hotel which offers very high standards and a touch of luxury.

ITINERARY

Day 1 (Wednesday) We shall depart West London (Acton, Ealing, Greenford, Northolt, Hillingdon etc) and travel south eastwards into Kent. Following a break for coffee we shall take you to Royal Tunbridge Wells where you will be able to visit the Pantiles, a Georgian colonnade with shops, and the ornate Opera House. The latter is now a Wetherspoons but operatic performances still take place here once a year. You could obtain lunch here if you wish. Then via the scenic Weald of Kent and its charming villages to Smallhythe Place near Tenterden, formerly the home of the celebrated actress Dame Ellen Terry. The house is full of her possessions including costumes she wore on stage. Dinner and a 2-night stay at the Flackley Ash Hotel near Rye.

Day 2 (Thursday) After breakfast we shall drive towards Romney Marsh to experience the unusual landscape of Dungeness (coffee stop). The Warden of the Cinque Ports has an apartment here - previous occupants include the Duke of Wellington and Sir Winston Churchill. Dinner at the Flackley Ash Hotel.

Day 3 (Friday) Our final day will see us travelling to the charming hilltop town of Rye. You will have time here at leisure to explore its quaint narrow streets, visit the church if you wish and obtain a light lunch in one of its cafes or ancient pubs.
