We are delighted to offer this exciting short break which includes a cruise on the Cunard liner Queen Anne, their newest ocean going ship, plus a visit to the beautiful springtime gardens at Keukenhof, and also Bruges, Amsterdam and the famous Rijksmuseum with its outstanding art collection.

Queen Anne is one of the finest ships afloat with an interior which features a modern, art-deco-inspired design while maintaining classic Cunard traditions. Queen Anne offers exceptional dining, luxurious accommodation and world-class entertainment in the ship's magnificent theatre. Dinner on Queen Anne will be in the spacious and elegant Britannia Restaurant - 1st sitting requested. During our cruise there will be an optional shore visit to Bruges often called the Venice of the north. This beautiful historic city is interspersed with canals and lined with charming old buildings. We will have three nights onboard so there will be time to enjoy the ship's daytime events programme before we disembark in Hamburg and travel into Holland.

During our two nights stay in Holland we shall visit the amazing Keukenhof Gardens near Amsterdam. Regarded as one of the world's largest flower gardens, Keukenhof has over 7 million flower bulbs. The flowerbeds, in a lovely park-land setting, are synchronised with three bulbs planted in each spot to ensure blooms throughout the spring.

We will also have an evening dinner cruise along Amsterdam's charming canals. As the capital and largest city of the Netherlands it is renowned for its historic canal network and iconic gabled houses. In addition there will be time at leisure to explore the city when you can visit the famous Rijksmuseum which encompasses 800 years of Dutch history, with the works of the great Dutch masters on display - Rembrandt, Vermeer and Van Gogh.

The hotel we shall be using in Amsterdam is the 4 star very modern Leonardo Royal Hotel. Travel from Hamburg to Amsterdam will be by luxury coach. The final part of our journey from Amsterdam to London will be by Eurostar in Eurostar Plus seats with a meal served to us during the journey.

This promises to be an exciting and interesting holiday so we hope you will decide to join us. You will be in good company escorted by our tour manager.
