Our 2025 holiday to Scotland not only offers the stunning scenery of the west coast and islands but also the very special highlight of a visit to Dumfries House which was dramatically saved for the nation by His Majesty the King in 2007. With its beautiful Robert Adam rooms, the house has an amazing collection of priceless Chippendale furniture. Beginning with a welcome video from the King, we will be taken on a fascinating guided tour. There are also beautiful walled gardens and grounds to explore. Another highlight will be sailing across to the Isle of Bute for a visit to Mount Stuart with its ornate Victorian Gothic interior. We will also visit Holker Hall near Grange over Sands, home of the Cavendish family with furniture from Chatsworth plus the stunning award winning gardens. Other highlights include a cruise on Loch Lomond surrounded by beautiful forests and mountains, a visit to Bowhill House, home of the Duke of Buccleuch containing one of the world's greatest private art collections. This visit is subject to confirmation. Finally at Salford Quays in Manchester we shall see a fine collection of paintings by L S Lowry.

The holiday will be based for four nights at Dunoon on the Firth of Clyde at the 3-star Selborne Hotel. From here there will be a relaxing cruise on Loch Lomond and other delights. We hope very much that this holiday will appeal to you. It includes an overnight stay at the 4-star Gosforth Park Holiday Inn on Day 1 and a 2-night stay on the homeward journey at the beautifully restored art deco 4-star Midland Hotel, Morecambe.
